PCS Tax Notification

(1 of 2)

- In accordance with the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (TCJA) 22 Dec 2017, moving expenses and relocation payments paid by an employer on and after January 1, 2018, are taxable. The Air Force will report the transportation cost associated with your move to the IRS and pay the taxes on behalf of the employee, which then creates a debt to the Air Force and a tax liability to the member. The tax liability will be reflected as a “Due U.S.” voucher and a debt notification will be mailed. The Air Force will offer several repayment plan options that best meet employee needs in order to ease any financial burden the taxes may cause.

Tax Notification (Cont'd)

Note: Standard issue indebtedness notification letters offer waiver options. However, there is not a waiver option for tax indebtedness.

A Travel W-2 will be processed at the end of the year and will include the increase in gross income, taxes for all PCS-related vouchers filed, and HHGs. W-2s will be mailed to employees and are also available through myPay. Employees will file their tax return for the calendar year and subsequently file a Relocation Income Tax Allowance (RITA) voucher to help offset the additional tax burden imposed by the PCS move. This is not a 100-percent dollar for dollar offset as each individual's tax situation is unique.
